

Socotra
trip

Welcome to #TheMostAlienPlaceOnEarth
the island of Socotra

Why Socotra?

Because

it is the place
'where the weird
things are'
(National Geographic)

it is a safe
destination

it is adventure,
virgin and
unexplored

it is UNESCO
World Heritage
site

it is visually
striking

A person with long red hair, wearing a light green t-shirt and blue jeans, is sitting on a rocky cliff edge. They are looking out over a vast, turquoise ocean under a bright, low sun. The cliffside is rugged and rocky, with some sparse vegetation. The overall scene is serene and inspiring.
